Friday 18th March: Bach to Boogie

Featuring talented Newport family, Valeria Forbes-Mavridis, award winning concert pianist and soloist with the Sydney Symphony Orchestra, her husband Yuri Mavridis, also an award winning musical entertainer, son George performing operatic arias and violinist daughter Natalie, who has performed as soloist with orchestra in the Sydney Town Hall. An exciting mix of talents to delight all tastes

Sunday 5th June: Avalonian Trio

The Avalonian Trio (Bridget Bolliger Flute, Susan Blake cello, John Martin piano) bring a delicious mix of romance and classicism with more than a hint of swing, laced with anecdote and sparkle! Haydn, Mendelssohn, Weber, Piazzolla and Bolling are among the delights in this concert of colour and virtuosity. Bridget, Susan and John will bring the gift of a memorable afternoon of musical delight and variety that is unmissable.

Sunday 30th September Best Australian Pianist of the 2016 Sydney International Piano Competition

Who will it be? We will have to wait for the announcement at the finals of SIPCA at the Sydney Opera House on Saturday 23rd July at 5pm. We await with anticipation.

Friday 4th November: From Paris to Buenos Aires, The Tango Trio

By popular demand Daniel Rojas Piano, returns again this time with a trio, and a different combination of instruments, Michael Kluger Accordion and Jay Byrnes Saxophone. The Tango Trio takes you on a journey from the poetic cafes of Paris to the saucy milongas of Buenos Aires. With a singular sound of the accordion, smooth saxophones and the orchestral drama of the piano, these memorable melodies from continents afar combine with delectable harmonies to stir the passions, and excite the senses.... a perfect start to summer. The program will include works by Satie, Piaf, Milhaud, Tiersen, Rodriguez Piazzolla and Gardel.
